

Help Wanted

Personal concierges do all your dirty work.

You don't need to be a high-powered executive or movie star to enjoy the benefits of a personal assistant. These four local concierge companies will streamline your life, allowing you more time for rest and relaxation. —Adam Erace

The service:

Philly Girl Friday

The cost:

starting at $35/hour

What you'll get: Your very own Small Wonder to deliver your dry-cleaning, walk your dog, pick you up from the airport and bake you a vague-sounding but nonetheless mouthwatering "casserole."

Added perks: Customized packages at discount rates. The Mother To Be is a three-hour bundle that includes two loads of laundry, kitchen and bathroom cleaning, a service errand and a pint of mommy's favorite ice cream.

Get it: 267-322-1131, PhillyGirlFriday.com

The service:

American Royalty

The cost: $24,000/year for individual clients; $120,000/year for corporate clients

What you'll get: Super Bowl tickets. Saturday night reservations at Vetri. A unicorn, perhaps? American Royalty makes its name securing the rare, the coveted and the hard-to-find for its 50 personal and 10 corporate clients.

Added perks: 24-hour access to a team of lifestyle management consultants.

Get it: 1-800-570-0235, AmericanRoyalty.com

The service:

Center City Concierge

The cost:

starting at $25/half hour

What you'll get:

Grocery shopping, checkbook balancing, yacht charters in the Seychelles and, according to its Web site, "Whatever you need, as long as it's legal and ethical." So that's a no on the Cuban cigars?

Added perks:

Free consultations

Get it: 215-735-2959, CenterCityConcierge.com

The service:

Yours, Mine, & Hours

The cost: $40 to $60/hour, depending on the service

What you'll get: House-sitting, courier and notary service, refrigerator stocking and holiday card mailings

Added perks: You'll look like the best gift-giver ever. Tell Yours, Mine & Hours a little about your hard-to-please pal, and they'll put together the perfect present.

Get it: 215-412-7689, YoursMineAndHours.com
